

Walsh Electronic Security is proud to be the Integration Partner for the State of Iowa offering Clear Touch Interactive panels.

This state-of-the-art technology is simply described as a gigantic tablet. It replaces white boards, projectors, and collaboration monitors, and there is no need for a remote or eraser. It is operated by touch or keyboard and mouse depending on the need, making it executive-, employee-, teacher- and student-friendly!

The Walsh Team provides on-site installation, training and service after the sale for this amazing technology.

A visit to www.GetClearTouch.com will give you a glimpse of the capabilities of these interactive panels. Better yet, we can provide a hands-on demonstration.

Now is a great time to learn more about Clear Touch which is ideal for today's interactive technology needs.
